Group Tour Descriptions

Ultimate Adventure EcoStar Helicopter Thursday, March 21 ~ 1:50pm-4:30pm

DESCRIPTION	You will start with an approximate 30-minute van ride to the helicopter location. Your journey begins with a flight to spectacular Hanapepe Valley, then continues on to Manawaiopuna, commonly referred to as "Jurassic Park Falls." Next it's up the Olokele Canyon before moving on to eye-popping Waimea Canyon, the famed "Grand Canyon of the Pacific" where you'll explore many hidden waterfalls. Then, the sculptural masterpiece of the Na Pali Coast gives way to the Bali Hai Cliffs, and the pristine blue waters of Hanalei Bay. Weather permitting, we'll visit Mt Waialeale, the heart of the ancient volcano. This is the wettest spot on earth, with an average rainfall of 450-500 inches annually! Flying into the center of the crater with its 5000-foot walls towering above and its 3000-foot waterfalls surrounding you, is a truly awe-inspiring finish to your ECO Adventure over the Garden Isle. Tour routes and sights visited may vary according to wind and weather conditions.
COST & INCLUSIONS	$269 per person (25-260 lbs.) Children 23 months and younger are complimentary when held on lap. If weight is over 260 lbs. you are required to pay for an additional seat at 50% the full fare. Includes: Round-trip transportation to/from the Kauai Marriott Resort, 50-55 minute helicopter tour, and fuel tax. Gratuities are at your discretion.
NOTES	Meet at the hotel lobby entrance by 1:50pm; van will leave by 2:00pm. Remember to bring your camera to take pictures! Wearing dark clothing will help lessen reflections in pictures. DO NOT bring large bags with you as they will not be allowed.

Smith's Family Garden Luau
Thursday, March 21 ~ 4:45pm-9:00pm

DESCRIPTION	Once you arrive to the luau location, which is located near the sacred Wailua River, a place once reserved for Hawaiian Royalty, you will receive your shell lei and take a narrated tram ride through the lush 30-acre gardens. You will have the opportunity to meet members of the Smith family and learn about the Hawaiian cooking method called Kalua, where Kalua pig is wrapped in ti leaves and cooked to perfection in the earthen imu oven. Have a mai tai, beer, or glass of wine at the open bar (soft drinks and juice are also available) as the Smith family entertains with Hawaiian songs. The music continues while you enjoy traditional flavors and island favorites like Kalua pork, beef teriyaki, chicken adobo, and sweet and sour mahi-mahi. Sample the ono local specialties like lomi salmon, fresh poi, Hawaiian sweet potato, mac salad, namasu salad, and scrumptious tropical desserts. After dinner, experience the great Hawaiian show in the spacious, open-air, torch-lit "Pele Amphitheater", complete with an erupting volcano! Move to the rhythm with colorful, authentic performances from Hawaii, Tahiti, Samoa, Philippines, New Zealand, China, and Japan.
COST & INCLUSIONS	$109 per person (13 years and older) $35 per child (7-12 years) $25 per child (3-6 years) Children 2 years and under are complimentary. Includes: Luau feast and show, open bar, tax, and gratuities.
